

MITCH GHEN, DO, PhD

Dr. Mitch has 35 years of experience in anti-aging and holistic and integrative medicine. Along with his work in nutritional medicine, "Dr. Mitch" has a remarkable amount of experience as an expert clinician and researcher in the field of stem cell transplantation.

In addition to being a physician, Dr. Mitch holds a Master's Degree in Biomechanical Trauma and has a Ph.D. in nutrition and psychoneuroimmunology. He is an international lecturer on oral and IV nutrition and stem cell transplantation and is recognized as one of the premier teachers at conferences and seminars on integrative medicine. His private practice is in Boca Raton, Florida.

Dr. Mitch's vast academic knowledge, coupled with his entertaining delivery, makes him one of the most sought after personalities in his field. Currently, he is a medical director for several natural medicine companies and a consultant for physicians worldwide, teaching them how to implement integrative medicine into their practices.

He is the co-author of four textbooks including the "Advanced Guide to Longevity Medicine," "The Ghen and Rains Guide to Compounding Pharmaceuticals," "The Anti-Aging Physicians' Handbook for Compounding Pharmaceuticals," and "The Essentials and Science of IV Parenteral Medicine." His soon-to-be-released book, "Look Good, Feel Good and Have Great Sex" is the first in a series of books about better living.
